

WRITE BY THE RIVER

£15 PER PERSON • BOOKING REQUIRED • 11am – 3.30pm

Writer Marian McCraith leads these full-day creative writing workshops, aimed at beginners or seasoned writers in all genres. Marian has been teaching creative writing for 30 years and is a professional writer herself. With a wide range of exercises writers can happily achieve their writing goals! Refreshments provided but please bring packed lunch.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

FREE • LIMITED SPACES • BOOKING ESSENTIAL • 10am – 2.30pm

Food for Thought is aimed at teenagers (12 – 17 years) who face difficulties participating in social activities. This project is a small friendly group taking place every two months, allowing teens to make new friends whilst baking awesome breads, biscuits and cakes! For booking please contact rosie@heronmill.org

HANDS-ON CRAFT

FREE • LIMITED SPACES • BOOKING ESSENTIAL • 1pm – 4pm

Erika leads this relaxing textiles workshop for people with dementia and their carers. It is also for people with mobility issues and other disabilities. With plenty of one-to-one tuition and assistance with weaving on 4-shaft looms.

POETRY CAFE

£5 PER PERSON • BOOKING REQUIRED • 11am – 3.30pm

Poetry Café

For lovers of poetry!
Our bi-monthly group-led Poetry Café invites you to join in – it is always popular so book early as limited spaces will be available.

POWSOWDIE

ALL EVENTS FREE • 11am – 2pm

JULY 15 – PAPERBACK WRITER

Favourite books, authors and genres – do you like a good historical novel, crime fiction or romance? Let's go between the covers (so to speak!) and find out!

SEP 16 – COMEDY CAPERS!

Who's your favourite stand-up? TV sitcom? Perhaps you prefer the radio comedy? Old time radio greats? Tell us – we won't laugh (or will we?)

OCT 14 – VILLAGE PEOPLE

What do we know about the village of Beetham? Any stories about its history? We'll have a little dig into the archives and the Beetham Repository to see what facts we can uncover.

NOV 18 – HOLDING BACK THE YEARS

The good and the bad about getting older? More time, no children or perhaps lots of grand-children! What is retirement like for you – or will you keep working?

DEC 16 – LAST CHRISTMAS

Thinking about Christmas through the years – what was your earliest Christmas memory? How did you celebrate? What kind of presents did you receive as a child? What kind of gifts are given now?
